CAMPUS EVENTS

CAMPUS EVENTS is a weekly bulletin for all summer students . . . . . 13 July 1964
Published by the Division of University Extension of the University of Toronto

INFORMATION PLEASE! Mrs. Deane is at the Information Centre, Hart House, 8:30 - 4:30 Monday to Friday, to answer your questions about campus activities, Metro Toronto, or whatever. Why don't you drop in!

Newspapers - all Toronto daily papers for your convenience in the Information Centre.

Brochures, pamphlets - these tell you what's going on in Toronto and hereabouts.

Bulletin boards - one is for "Lost and Found" and other individual notices - check these also for your typing needs.

MacMILLAN LECTURE The second in the series will be held Tues. 14 July, 8:30, Edward Johnson Building. "Music and the Bard" is the title of this lecture. Tickets for it are available at the Information Centre. No charge!

WHAT ABOUT CAPITAL PUNISHMENT? This issue will be argued by Mr. Arthur Maloney, Q.C. at 12:00 noon in the East Common Room of Hart House today 13 July. No one is better able to speak to this subject than Mr. Maloney who will be the Chairman of the "Canadian Society to Abolish the Death Penalty". While a former M.P. for Toronto Parkdale, 1957-1962, Mr. Maloney received an honorary LL.D. degree from St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown, P.E.I. in 1961. He was also responsible for arguing the "Wilfred Coffin Case" before the Supreme Court of Canada. Your time will be well spent in the East Common Room today at noon.

"HART HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT" The first of these social evenings was enjoyed by one of the largest crowds so far last Wednesday evening. Mixed swimming, dancing and cards are the order of the evening for this Wednesday night, again beginning at 9:00. The films with which we had difficulty last Wednesday will be in proper order also this week. Your summer A.T.L. card is the only price of admission. A special feature this week will be the appearance of Miss Ella Jenkins, Folkways Recording artist who is a specialist in African rythms. See you there!

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS Today from 12:00 to 1:30 is the last opportunity for women to receive their medical permission to swim from Dr. D. Vozis. Instruction in the following will be offered for all interested women:-
